

119 Barnett Wood Lane, Ashted, KT21 2LR
Guide price £950,000

 4  1  3  E

A characterful period detached family home detailing many original features, with huge potential to extend (subject to the usual permissions) and add value, nestled in the beautiful village of Ashted in leafy Surrey.

The existing ground floor layout includes a welcoming porch, spacious entrance hallway which sets the tone with splendid high ceilings and original corning, a formal dining room with feature fireplace, a generous lounge with original rectangular sash bay window, a charming garden room, a fitted kitchen/breakfast room with wood burner, a utility space and a downstairs WC.

Upstairs there is a long split level landing with access to four double bedrooms, a large family bathroom with roll top bath and separate double shower. There is also potential to en-suite the principle bedroom and there is access to a large loft space.

The rear garden is beautifully matured, including a large lawn section, access to both sides of the dwelling, a paved patio area for entertaining, space for a good size shed and an established selection of trees, hedging and planted areas.

To the front and rear there is parking for multiple vehicles and further potential to add garaging if required.

Ashted boasts access to a number of well regarded state and public schools and enjoys being surrounded by some of Surrey's areas of most outstanding beauty. Connectivity to London, the airports and to the coast is easily covered via the mainline station, junction 9 of the M25 and further roads including the A217, A3 and A24. Ashted is proud to boast many independent shops for all your day to day needs, including three butchers, greengrocers, a fishmonger, coffee houses, restaurants and pubs, however wider main brand shops are available and within easy reach, including M&S, Waitrose, Tesco, Sainsbury's and Lidl.
